

HCPPA-NSW has donated $1000 dollars to a worthy cause.....

The Centre for Child Development (CFCD) is an NGO registered in 2000, actively functioning in Vanni since the end of the war to alleviate the sufferings of the war affected children and their families.

Former Jaffna municipality commissioner Mr.K.Sivagnanam is the Chairman of this organization.

The money donated by HCPPA-NSW will partly be used to run the Sewing Centre. The CFCD requires approximately $3000 to run the Sewing Centre for the first six months. The funds will be mainly used to buy clothing material and pay for the trainers. At the completion of initial 6 months training, the centre will be self-supporting unit tailoring various garments for outside sale while training more people.

Their Mission, Strategies and activities are outlined below.
